I would like to recommend that you read The Fourfold Gospel by J. W. McGarvey in concert with the Life of Christ plan. See me if you need a copy.

The Bible is actually a collection of 66 books written by at least 40 human authors. Christianity, which is based on the Bible, is the only religion that claims a resurrected Savior, Christ. The Bible is a work of long compilation since the writings of its books span at least 1500 years. It is an ancient writing in that the last author of any of the books, the Apostle John, died approximately 1900 years ago. The two major divisions are the Old Testament and the New Testament.

The Old Testament is comprised of 39 books, Genesis to Malachi

The books of the Old Testament were written over a period of about 1000 years. The Old Testament can be divided into 4 major subdivisions:

- (A) History: Genesis thru Esther (17 books)
- (B) Poetry/Wisdom Literature: Job thru Song of Solomon (5 books)
- (C) Major Prophets: Isaiah thru Daniel (5 books)
- (D) Minor Prophets: Hosea thru Malachi (12 books)

Genesis to Esther are 17 books which deal with History.

The first 5 books are known as the Pentateuch and are Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy. These books are also known as the Mosaic Law because it is generally accepted that Moses was the author of all 5 books or at least the majority of each. The books also cover the pre-Canaan or Promised Land existence of the Israelites.

The next 12 books are Joshua to Esther and can be divided into 2 subcategories. The first 9 of these 12 books are Joshua, Judges, Ruth, I Samuel, II Samuel, I Kings, II Kings, I Chronicles and II Chronicles. These books record the experiences in Canaan.

The last 3 of these 12 books are Ezra, Nehemiah and Esther. These books are the post-exile from Canaan history.

The 5 books in the center of the Old Testament are Poetry and Wisdom Literature.

These books are Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes and Song of Solomon. These books contain, respectively, writings of the 5 following subjects: (1) human tragedy and suffering; (2) poetry of praise, prophesy, problems and peace; (3) wisdom for life; (4) the meaninglessness of life apart from God and the futility of autonomous human wisdom; (5) God's gift of the relation of love between men and women, which is actually a foreshadowing of the relationship between Christ and the Church.

The last 17 books of the Old Testament are the Prophets. These are divided into 2 main categories: the Major Prophets and the Minor Prophets. The Major Prophets are made up of 5 books and are Isaiah, Jeremiah, Lamentations, Ezekiel and Daniel. The Minor Prophets are made up of the last 12 books of the Old Testament and are Hosea, Joel, Amos, Obadiah, Jonah, Micah, Nahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah, Haggai, Zechariah and Malachi.
